

Jane C. Thurber

100 High Street
Amherst, MA 01002
janethurber@comcast.net

Artist, Landscape Architect, Lecturer of Landscape Architecture at UMass

B.A. in Studio Art and English, Hamilton College, 1980
Master of Landscape Architecture, Harvard University, 1985.

Thurber teaches landscape architecture studios and design drawing at UMass Amherst. She has practiced landscape architecture in Massachusetts, Florida, and New Mexico; and taught in Miami and Tampa. Her professional work has focused on the design of public projects--plazas, parks, campuses, streetscapes, and playgrounds.

Her recent art exhibits include:

2012 Field Notes², Porter Phelps Huntington Museum, Hadley, Massachusetts
(with Stephen Schreiber, Sigrid Miller Pollin)

2012 Whole Children Benefit, Center for the Arts, Northampton, Massachusetts
(Invited group)

2011 Field Notes, Herter Gallery, UMass Amherst
(with Stephen Schreiber, Sigrid Miller Pollin)